About Our Deep Dish

Our deep dish pies are an authentic Chicago style pizza. They are constructed "backwards", starting with the crust pulled up along the edge of a 2" pan to form a deep bowl like pie. They are then loaded with a layer of sliced mozzarella cheese, next comes a double layer of toppings of your choice. Lastly, a thick layer of our homemade pizza sauce is spread over the top of the toppings, with a sprinkling of Pecorino Romano to finish it off.

- NOTE: Our deep dish pies are loaded with double the toppings so we suggest no more than 2-3 toppings per pizza. We bake these massive pies low and slow so PLEASE ALLOW AT LEAST 45 MINUTES BAKING TIME. -
